

Half-day Tour- Karato Fish Market and Kanmon Strait

Crossing the Kanmon Strait on the Kanmon suspension bridge, we will visit the Karato Fish Market in Shimonoseki, famous for its fugu (blowfish) dishes. On the weekends, the fish market has a special event in which many small food stalls are open to the public. Let's try some fresh and delicious Japanese seafood there, including the local specialty fugu. A five-minute walk will take us to Shunpanro. This was the site of the signing of the Treaty of Shimonoseki, which ended the First Sino-Japanese War (you can also visit if you are interested in.). Shunpanro was also the first restaurant in Japan to serve fugu dishes. Next, we will take a walk under the Kanmon Strait by the Kanmon Undersea Pedestrian Tunnel. It will take about ten minutes to reach the other side at Mojiko Retro . Here you can enjoy shopping and strolling through the retro area. Finally we will drop in the Kaikyo Drama Ship to see a representation of a mid-twentieth century Japanese town (Showa Era).
