

The Fourth Asia Future Conference

Announcement of AFC#4 Special Subsidy

For scholars from: Indonesia, Philippines, Thailand, Vietnam, and Taiwan

The AFC#4 Special Subsidies are made possible thanks to the special donations. This is a separate application process from the AFC paper submission and AFC Scholarship application. While you will submit your abstract/paper and apply for the participation through AFC website as usual, you need to apply separately for this AFC Special Subsidy. The selection will be made separately. If you are awarded for this subsidy, you will not be awarded the AFC Scholarship. Qualifications, quality of paper, good standing in own home institution and the necessity to receive the subsidy will be considered in the selection.

DESCRIPTION:

The amount of the AFC Special Subsidy for each recipient is $810 that includes the $240 registration fee and $270 accommodation fee. These fees will be offset from the subsidy and the recipients will receive $300 in cash at the conference venue.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Holds nationality of his/her designated country, and lives in the same country. Designated countries are: Indonesia, Philippines, Thailand, Vietnam, and Taiwan
- Has completed the online submission of abstract to the AFC by August 31, 2017, and has been informed of acceptance by October 31, 2016.
- Does not have any other subsidy from AFC or other institutions for the purpose of participating in AFC#4.
- Those who have been awarded AFC Special Subsidies in the past are not eligible. But this need not apply for those who have been awarded AFC Scholarship in the past.
- Has a good standing in his/her own home institution (i.e., completing work in a timely manner; no academic probation, etc.) which is proven by a recommendation letter from his/her supervisor.
